

Akoose reptiles and amphibians – Nyam eche édule abum

Big Bekondo
25 March 2009

Akoose	NC	English	Latin	Comment
abende dé esalé		giant frog (large hairy frog)
akub á kóó		large snail
chokôd	7/8	chameleon (general name)
chokôd é meséb		three horned chameleon		pg 190 chokôd ésad		Quilo chameleon		pg 198 (is small and black) chonde		poisonous toad
debote (píi)		Gaboon viper		pg 602
dyësid	5/6	crab
ebóte é ngule		common agama		pg 152
ebúd	7/8	frog, edible		[, black, female of esalé ?]
edúndé é nyă		Calabar sand boa		pg 364. 634
edyé mekií mékúbe		confusing egg eater		pg 402
ehel		red-flanked skink		pg 266 (called monitor) ekub	7/8	tadpole		it eventually becomes an edible frog e'léb	14/6	forest cobra, black & white cobra		pg 582, 590 émoŋ	7/8	kind of tadpole, but larger esalé	7/8	edible kind of frog ésemekwě	1/2	snake
kûl e ahín		serrated hinged tortoise		P9 80 (lives in the forest)
kûl e mendíb		black hinged terrapin		pg 62 (lives in water) mbáréé [/ mbáádée]	1/2	tadpole		it eventually becomes an edible frog mbhódeé	1/2	smaller tadpole
mbhôm	3/4	African rock python		pg 370
mbhon	9/10	ordinary toad
mbhon e mbwen		giant forest toad		it's body is smooth with a peculiar colour but poisonous mekotéé		green mamba		pg 570
mpumée a nyă		black-lined green snake, emerald snake		pg 444, 446, 500
ndumée a nyă/		Broadley's bush viper		pg 594

Akoose	NC	English	Latin	Comment
mbulɛɛ a nyǎ
ngan	9/10	Nile crocodile		pg 88
ngɔmbhɛ	9/10	ornate monitor lizard		pg 310 (common name is iguana)
ngɔmélɔkɛɛ	9/10	tadpole of a toad		has a small mouth with large stomach ngə-ndábe		spine-necked cnemaspis		pg 104 (called wall gecko) ngule	9/10	little ground agama		pg 156 (called lizard) pg 244, pg 296
nhó mendibe		brown water snake		pg 380
nhóm		black bellied water snake		pg 454 (called lucky snake) ńkálaj		tadpole with hands and legs		the tail of this tadpole is still long nkombhe ngan		dwarf crocodile		pg 92 (called alligator)
nsáse ń ngule / ngule e nyǎ		swamp lizard / Lepesme's mountain skink		pg 222 / pg 244, pg 296
ńsíí ń nyɔke		earth worm?
ńtɔl		tadpole		this turns into esálé
nyǎ	9/10	snake (general word)
píí	9/10	rhinoceros viper		pg 604
súnsúnéé		tadpole almost developed into a frog		hands and legs are fully developed, but still has a small tail from dictionary, not recognized or doubles, need to review.

asúd dé esálé	5/6	otter shrew (or kind of frog(?))		from dictionary, not recognized or doubles, need to review.
ebóténgule	7/8	lizard, male
edún	7/8	blind snake
ehel	7/8	monitor *lizard
mbon	9/10	inedible frog
ndumɛɛ	1/2	kind of snake
ngoondábe	1/2	wall gecko		